HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION ELECTS NEW OFFICERS AND TRUSTEES

CONCORD - The members of the New Hampshire Hospital Association recently elected officers and trustees for its Board.

Paul Gardent, Executive Vice President of Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, was elected Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Michael Green, President and CEO of Concord Hospital, was elected Vice Chairman.

Harry Dorman, President and CEO of Alice Peck Day Memorial Hospital in Lebanon, was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Association.

The following individuals were elected to the Board of Trustees:

- ◆ William "Chip" Holmes, Administrator of Littleton Regional Hospital, Littleton
- ◆ Bruce King, President and CEO of New London Hospital, New London
- ◆ Arthur Nichols, President of Cheshire Medical Center, Keene

The New Hampshire Hospital Association, a not-for-profit affiliate of the American Hospital Association, serves as a state and federal advocate for hospitals, provides education and information to its members, and informs the public about health care issues.
