Overview

Many New England hospitals have been making strides to comply with environmental regulations, adopt best practices, prevent pollution and provide cleaner, greener healing places for their patients, employees, and communities. For many years, EPA has provided compliance assistance, conducted inspections, and provided incentives for hospitals and other healthcare organizations to encourage environmental performance improvement. EPA has done much of their outreach in partnership with a variety of partners. This event is intended to provide attendees with updates on compliance topics, introduce and/or review assistance tools, and provide hospitals' perspectives on their efforts to improve their environmental performance.
